MISSOULA--

Dr. Donald B. Koeppen, coordinator of business education and office administration for the School of Education at the University of Montana in Missoula, was elected to the Policy and Planning Committee of the Business and Office Education Division of the American Vocational Association at a recent AVA convention in Anaheim, Calif.

The division, which consists of several thousand business and office educators, is composed of the National Association of Supervisors of Business Education (NASBE), the National Association of State Supervisors of Business and Office Education (NASSBOE), the Classroom Educators of Business and Office Education (CEBOE) and the National Association of Teacher Educators for Business and Office Education (NATEBOE).

Koeppen, who was the 1973-74 president of NATEBOE, will represent that organization on the Policy and Planning Committee for a three-year term, beginning July 1, 1976. The purpose of the committee is to carry out the general purposes of the division and of the American Vocational Association.
